

Four county youths dead following crash

Funeral services were held this past Monday and Tuesday for four Haliburton young people who died in a tragic automobile accident late Friday evening on Highway 35. The death of the four from the county, two others from Peterborough, and the serious injury of a fifth individual from Minden has left Highlands residents stunned.

Dead is 17 year old Jeffrey Hutchings of Haliburton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hutchings; Rodney D. Gorveatt, 18, of Minden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rod. Gorveatt; Penny Pripp, 16, of Haliburton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Pripp; and 17 year old Wendy E. Schell of Haliburton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Les Schell. Joe Dollo Jr., a passenger in the same vehicle with the four deceased, is in St. Joseph's Hospital in Peterborough suffering from major injuries sustained in the two car mishap.

The two other deceased, occupants of the second car were Donald C. Faulkner, 53 of Peterborough and his wife, Barbara G. Faulkner, 50.

The vehicle carrying the Haliburton youths was travelling south on Highway 35 north of Carnarvon. Driven by Jeffrey Hutchings, the car apparently slid sideways and struck the front end of the Faulkner vehicle as it was travelling north. Both cars were described by police as being totally destroyed.

As news of the tragedy spread through the county Saturday morning residents reacted with shock and disbelief. Friends, relatives, fellow students of the deceased and members of the high school staff comforted the bereaved families throughout the weekend.

On Monday morning a memorial service was held for the four at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School. Students and staff from the school, which all four teenagers had attended, paid tribute to them in a service conducted by Reverend E. L. Wicks of the Minden Gospel Church, Reverend T. Denny of the Anglican parish in Haliburton and Reverend John Smith, also of Haliburton.

High school principal Brian Mosgrove described the service as a very moving moment in the life of the school. "I am very proud of the maturity the students showed during the service," Mosgrove commented. He said close to 600 people were on hand for the Monday morning memorial, which was to have been for students and staff only, but many former students attended as well.

The police investigation is continuing with Sergeant Bill Bailey in charge. Assisting are Corporal Peter Alexander and Constable Weldon Popp.

Agreement reached on road closing

It appears that an agreement has been reached between the Anson, Hindon and Minden Township Council, cottagers along the south shore of Twelve Mile Lake and the owners of Hart Lodge over the use of a road which cuts across the lodge property.

According to details released at the November 12 meeting of the council all parties have agreed that the old road through the lodge property will remain open but will be closed at the point where it intersects with a new road. This agreement would mean cottagers adjacent to the lodge, along the south shore of the lake, will have access to their properties on the old road which cuts through the lodge, while cottagers further along the west shore of the lake will have to use the new road to reach their property.

The agreement will reduce the amount of traffic through the lodge property and end a dispute that saw area cottagers challenge the legality of a closing by-law passed by the council in late 1979. That challenge resulted in the by-law being withdrawn and a new one proposed. This new agreement does not follow exactly the details set out in a by-law advertised by the municipality earlier this year, however, since all parties have verbally indicated their agreement with the plan, it is likely the road closure will finally stand.

The council, which hopes to complete the closure at the November 26 meeting, has requested letters of confirmation from all parties to the agreement.

The posts used to close the road will be spaced far enough apart to allow snowmobiles to pass but will block vehicular traffic.

Recount set for Nov. 26

A date has been set for the recounting of ballots in the race for the third seat on the Anson, Hindon and Minden Township council. The recount will take place Wednesday, November 26 in Lindsay.

Judge Lloyd Woods will preside at the recount.

The judicial procedure became necessary after council candidates Larry Cummins and Ed Pergolas each polled 421 votes to tie for the third and last place on the council. Under Ontario regulations following the count the ballots are sealed in the boxes and cannot be opened until the presiding judge begins the recount.

Each of the candidates will attend the recount along with a scrutineer appointed by each and the municipal clerk-treasurer, Elinor Burke.

If, after the recount is completed, the two candidates still have the same number of votes, a simple draw will be used to determine the winning candidate.

Rough roads are from sewer work says MTC official

Township council has found support for its contention that Minden Village streets are in questionable condition and their present state can be attributed to the installation of sewers. The support came in the form of a letter from Don Glashan of the Ministry of Transportation and Communications office in Huntsville.

"Generally the streets referred to are deficient structurally, with some drainage problems," the letter from the engineer stated. "Much of the distortion, in this office's opinion, can be attributed to sewer construction."

For the past year or more the municipality has been attempting to obtain compensation from the Ministry of the Environment for the condition of the roads following the sewer work. A number of approaches to the ministry have been rebuffed by MOE officials and the municipality is currently preparing a suit to obtain some action from the provincial government agency.

Glashan recommended that before any work be undertaken the municipality retain a consultant to prepare a cost estimate for the necessary repairs. It was suggested that soil tests and other pertinent information be gathered before any work is started.

"With this information, council will be able to establish the priorities and prepare a budget program that would probably extend over a period of 2-3 years," the letter said.

According to the MTC spokesman, the cost of the report would be subsidized by the ministry at the usual rate.

Council seemed pleased with the reply from the ministry. Reeve Sinclair Nesbitt noted the ministry had refused in the past to subsidize any part of the work involved with the sewer installation road repair. He proposed the council begin the study as suggested by the MTC official. "They wouldn't subsidize the study if they wouldn't assist with construction as well," the reeve commented.

Councillor Stuart Brandon suggested a copy of the letter should be sent to the Ministry of Environment for their perusal.

FROM THE CHAMBER

By Bob Stinson

John Hogg, past president of our Haliburton Chamber has been elected to a second term on the Board of Directors of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce. In this capacity John represents district 21 which encompasses an area reaching down to and including Peterborough and is responsible for carrying their wishes and concerns to the board.

The Ontario Chamber of Commerce has gained a great deal of respect and credibility in its dealings with the provincial government over the last few years and we are proud and fortunate to have one of our members involved in their organization at the decision making level. We have, in the past, been concerned at times that not enough emphasis was placed on tourism by that body, but John will be doing his part towards changing all that.

Speaking of tourism

We heard recently of one tourist operator who stamps all her cheques with a big red stamp reading "This account is being paid with TOURIST DOLLARS". So often had she heard members in the business community saying that they were not in the tourist business that she felt it was time they were reminded of just where some of their income really does come from. If each dollar in our community could be identified in such a way we suspect a lot of people in this county would be very surprised with just how involved in the tourist industry they are.

The Ministry of Industry & Tourism has just released a list of their winter promotion advertising dates to us and there will be a substantial campaign to encourage winter participation in the resort areas. Anyone wishing to key their own advertising to the Ministry's ads is encouraged to contact the Chamber for details of the schedule.

Election post mortems

As the dust settles over the municipal election scene many analysts are trying to figure out what is wrong. On the surface there appears to be a tremendous amount of apathy with possibly a record number of acclamations and a very low percentage of voters showing up at the polls and at the candidate meetings. Where there were elections there were a few changes unless there was a major issue at stake.

One observation in our area is that the radio and television media have shown more interest in the U.S. election than in the local scene and hence may be to some extent responsible. While the Carter vs. Reagan issue was being resolved regular programs were being pre-empted to an alarming rate on Canadian T.V., but when our own municipal elections were held some people were unaware of all the results until the local papers were circulated two days later. Two years ago C.K.C.O. carried the results of the Reeve and Deputy Reeve contests in our region and this time decided to not even bother with that. The media is obviously convinced that we don't care and feel we would rather watch the "Incredible Hulk" than know who is going to be running our municipality or school board for the next term.

The other observation is that many individuals who would be excellent candidates are far too often discouraged from participating, because they note that those who do, receive so much criticism and so little praise or appreciation that they decide they don't really need the aggravation. That's our fault - yours and ours!

What's new

Park Cottages & Trailer Park at Wilberforce is getting a new lease on life. Percy and Acy Allin have purchased the property and are working hard towards restoring the facilities to their former quality and friendly atmosphere. They are former residents of the Peterborough area and are optimistic about the future of their refurbished facilities. Please welcome them.

Hollow Valley Lodge at Dorset held their grand opening last week and served dinner to over 70 people on the three successive nights involved. With this kind of encouragement they look forward to their "Special" nights planned throughout the winter season. Tuesday night is Spaghetti Night (only 99¢), Wednesday night is Euchre and Cribbage night, and Thursday is Amateur night. Friday and Saturday are sing-along evenings. Meanwhile the Old Log Cabins are being moved onto new foundations and a central heated washroom with showers is nearing completion. They will be ready for business this winter with the cabins and winter campsites.

Camp Allsaw on Soyer's Lake recently was the subject of a feature article in the Christian Science Monitor which discussed the excellent programs that owner Sam Hambly operates there which teaches the ways and means of preserving our natural resources. Congratulations Sam!

Audience treated to toe tapping tunes

There was hardly a still toe to be found Friday evening at the High School auditorium.

The occasion was the first in the Haliburton Highlands Concert Series featuring the music of Maple Sugar. The audience, which filled three-quarters of the hall, obviously enjoyed the presentation of the lively bunch of singers and a single dancer and they provided a musical tour of Canada through folk songs.

The musicians showed a versatility on numerous instruments adding to the variety of the program. Drawing on traditional ballads, shantys and instrumental pieces, they wove an interesting tale of Canada's musical heritage. Between each number they offered insights into the history of the music being performed, the European influences and what region in Canada could claim each song.

The attraction of the night however, was the step dancing demonstrations offered by one member of the troupe. Dancing to traditional jigs and reels the dancer captivated the audience during his performances.

It was a casual evening, one in which the performers struck a personal, friendly relationship with the audience. By the second half of the program many in attendance joined in clapping out the rhythm and joining the singers.

Many of the songs offered by Maple Sugar were the lively renditions kept the audience interest high throughout.

This is the first in the concert series. The next takes place Wednesday December 10 when the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts Choral Society present their annual Christmas Concert.

Truck strikes couple

An accident in Huntsville has taken the life of a Minden area resident and seriously injured his wife.

Mr. Jack Johnson and his wife Georgie were shopping on the main street of Huntsville early Saturday morning when they were pinned against a storefront by a runaway truck. The truck had been parked on a steep incline leading onto the main street and was unattended when it started to roll towards the couple. The driver who had left the truck was James Cooper of Huntsville.

The couple was taken to Huntsville Memorial Hospital. Hospital officials refused to comment on the condition of Mrs. Johnson or even admit that she was still at the Huntsville facility.

The accident was investigated by Constable B.J. Graham of Huntsville detachment of the OPP.

The couple had been residents of Lutterworth Estates.

Highway 35 our community has suddenly been struck with an incredible sadness over the loss it has just experienced. Jack Johnson was employed at the Beaconbrook Motel and well known to many who stayed there. The young people were the children of several of our members, and they had not yet had the chance to take their own place in our business community. Our very sincere sympathy goes out to all the members of the families.

The body on the parlour floor seems to have drawn a bit of attention from cast members of the latest production of the Highlands Little Theatre. The lifeless form appeared mysteriously (as these things are wont to do) during a rehearsal of Agatha Christie's A Murder is Announced. Reeve supports deposit system

Anson, Hindon and Minden Reeve Sinclair Nesbitt has voiced his support for a procedure followed in Lutterworth Township for individuals wishing to purchase the 66 foot shore allowance in front of their property. Nesbitt made his comments at the November 12 meeting of the Minden council.

He said Lutterworth municipality was not wrong to ask for a deposit from those individuals requesting to make the purchase. He said the deposit was useful in covering initial costs incurred by the municipality.

Lutterworth Township requires that applicants place a $400 deposit with the municipality as a demonstration of their sincerity in carrying through with the purchase plan.

The Minden Reeve qualified his remarks however, by noting that property owners in this township should be encouraged to wait until the Ministry of Housing has released its long awaited policy statement regarding the sale of shore allowance property. Most municipalities in the county have placed a "hold" on such applications pending the announcement of the Housing policy. Earlier this year the county council adopted a policy and most townships are ready to proceed.

Nesbitt told the meeting he did not feel there was "any great hurry" for those thinking of purchasing the shore allowance. He suggested the council consider any requests carefully before making any financial commitment.

The reeve said he felt a large number of people were rushing to buy something they might not, in the end, want.

The matter was raised during the consideration of the minutes of last month's county council meeting.

Payment approved

The initial payment to Ray Knight Construction Ltd. of Orillia for work on the new curling club and recreation centre was approved by the township council at the November 12 meeting. The payment was $68,380.95.

The company had applied for payment of $128,000, but this figure was amended to reflect the work carried out to date.

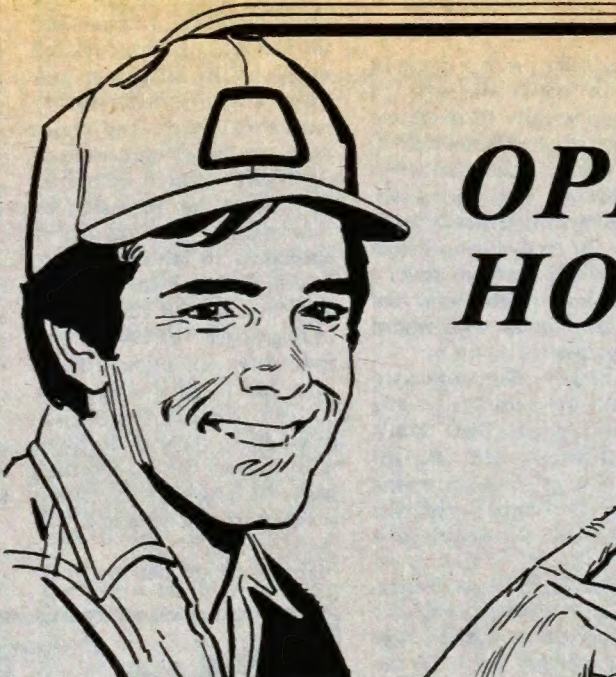

The council also agreed to borrow up to $200,000 from the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce to cover the construction costs. This amount and interest will be covered by a Wintario grant to be delivered in April which has been approved by the Ontario Ministry of Culture and Recreation.

Inquest ordered

An inquest has been ordered into the death of Guy Sandford Mintz, 18, of Irondale.

Mintz was found dead at the junction of Highways 503 and 507. An initial report issued by the police indicated that Mintz had been struck by a car driven by 69 year old Edward Bacon of Gooderham. The mishap took place shortly before 6 a.m. September 7. Conditions at the time were described as being foggy.

Presiding at the inquest will be Dr. J. P. MacKay District Coroner from Parry Sound.

A shared burden

The passing of one member of the community is a loss shared by many. But, when four young people lose their lives, as happened this past weekend, the entire community is touched. Whether one knew the youths or the families personally or not, the shock is felt by everyone.

The family and friends of the four have a heavy burden to bear, however, they can find reassurance in knowing the sympathy and thoughts of everyone in the community goes out to them at this time.

Simple pleasures

Life, it has been said by optimists, is simply a series of small pleasures strung out like glistening pearls on a string. For example, remember that icy cold drink on a stiflingly hot summer day, or finding your favourite movies on the late show, or sleeping in that Saturday morning the grandparents willingly took the children for the weekend or taking the garbage to the dump.

Unfortunately, all the pleasure and joy associated with the latter exercise has been stripped away by the municipality. Presumably in an effort to cut costs, the Anson, Hindon and Minden dump on the Scotch Line will only be open from 1 to 5 p.m. daily. We predict, if the hours are allowed to stand this winter, that no snow will accumulate at the dump gate as the air in that vicinity will be hot and blue from the oaths offered by thwarted citizens who arrive prior to or after hours.

This spring the municipality re-arranged the hours at the dump, locking the gates in the evening in an effort to reduce the number of fires at the site (and presumably to allow the bears a few minutes to themselves.) During the time the gates were open, an attendant was on duty to ensure deposits were neatly placed in their appointed locations.

The system worked. The summer passed without a raging inferno at the local depository and the site was certainly much cleaner. Citizens seemed able to adjust to the new hours, which were reasonable...7 p.m. closing on weekdays and 9 p.m. on weekends.

However, having now trained the citizenry to the new hours, (there are still a few who insist on midnight deliveries and leave their packages at the locked gate), the schedule has again been altered. Not only is the change in hours unsettling, but the rather restricted hours mean that during the week only those who can slip away from their employment or family will be able to take advantage of the facilities on Scotch Line east. For many, the hours will mean a new activity, the after work-pre 5 p.m. dash or stacking smoldering bags of jetsam around the house until the weekend.

We suggest the municipality consider extending the hours to 6 or even 7 p.m. It may be dark and drear at that time of the day, but at least the longer hours of operation will take some of the scramble out of what was once one of life's simple pleasures.

REPORT FROM QUEEN'S PARK

By John Eakins, M.P.P.

The recent announcement by the Liquor Control Board of Ontario that more women must be considered for employment, has prompted me to leave a few thoughts with you on the Women's Bureau of the Ministry of Labour.

This provincial government agency, which is perhaps not

What other papers say

Newspaper editors and preachers have a lot in common.

No, we do not mean that they are liable to end up in the same subdivision of hereafter when their work is done, but rather that their jobs are somewhat similar.

Preachers and newspaper editors - good ones, that is - are evangelists.

They both try, by example, suggestion and criticism, to put across ideas. And they often practice their preaching with annoying consistency.

Of course there are some preachers who condemn sin in general without making the application close enough to irritate their congregations.

And there are plenty of editors who can write vividly of events and issues which happen a hundred or a thousand miles away but who seldom, if ever, take a stand on a local question.

As a matter of fact there has been a tendency in recent years in the English-speaking world toward the growth of chain newspapers. Publishing has become such a costly business that the small operator has little chance of top-heavy profit; more often than not he is lucky to hold a break-even pace with a community-oriented publication. On the other hand, the big publisher with a chain of daily or weekly journals, has the opportunity to moderate to, large dividends multiplied, of course, by the number of acquisitions. Conversely, too, we have only recently seen where the really big operators can pull the rug from under a border-line publication and kill for purely economical advantages.

In many chain-operated journals, however, the editorial pages have taken second place to the advertising columns. The crusading editor, the local evangelist and leader, has largely disappeared.

Under centralized ownership and management the personalized editorial page with its highly local flavour has too often been replaced by commonly expressed platitudes which will offend no one and guide no one.

It is important that Canadians take note of this trend. The freedom of enterprise and individual initiative of which we speak and write so freely depends for its spark in no small measure on crusading personalities within our own towns and villages. These men - be they preachers or editors - owe their first allegiance to truth and to the welfare of their neighbour citizens.

too widely known, has existed since 1963. It was established to address the special problems encountered by women as their role in the paid labour force expands. The bureau was given a specific mandate to provide information to the general public on labour-related issues affecting women, and to work towards the elimination of sex-role stereotyping in the workplace. Three major program areas are operated: Information and Communications, Community Outreach, and Affirmative Action.

The Information and Communications Unit is, of course, associated with the provision of information and the handling of labour-related problems. Its list of activities and responsibilities is extremely diverse and major tasks are the accumulation of data and research materials, as well as the provision of information. With the aid of specialists in labour legislation on the team, the bureau's staff are able to respond to telephone calls from individuals and organizations on a wide range of legal issues or to refer them to appropriate agencies. Recently the most common topics have been pregnancy leave, sexual harassment and equal pay.

Unit staff are also involved in the preparation, for Ministry consideration, of studies and policy recommendations relating to the enactment and enforcement of labour legislation affecting women.

The Community Outreach Unit assumes special responsibility for maintaining active liaison with community-based organizations. A number of special client groups are served, including ethnic agencies, Native women's organizations, women's voluntary groups, employment counselling services, immigrant service centres, as well as low income women, women re-entering the labour force, and young women who are making vocational decisions while they are still in school.

The Affirmative Action Consulting Service provides information and advice to employers and unions concerning equal opportunity for women in the work place. The unit provides resources for management consultants, and labour, trade and professional associations - in other words, almost everyone concerned with women employees. It is the unit consultant's job to show employers how to make the best of all their human resources by adopting affirmative action programs and activities.

Cecil and Gladys Gibbons of R.R. 1 Minden were guests of honour November 1 at a dinner in Toronto marking their golden wedding anniversary. The reception was held in the Sherway Gardens auditorium. Friends and relatives from Minden, Sudbury, Niagara Falls, Owen Sound and other communities in the province attended the celebration.

Kinmount Legion members remember

Remembrance Day Service for Legion Branch 441 was planned for Sunday, November 8, to be held at the cenotaph on the main street; but because of wet weather, the service was presented in the Legion Hall, led by Comrade Norman Gilmore, the Branch President.

Short speeches of appreciation of the contribution of our veterans to our country, were made by Mr. Carl Brickman, Reeve of Galway and Cavanish Twps., Mr. Maurice Watson, Reeve of Twp. of Somerville, and Mr. William Scott, M.P.

After a pause for each individual to "Remember!", Comrade Norman Silver called "The Roll of the Fallen".

A very moving rendition of the Last Post was played by Piper Ivan Thompson, followed by the "Silence" and then "Reveille".

Then Comrade Sam Telford called up the representatives who would normally have laid the wreaths at our monument. There were 29 in all, which is, we think, an extraordinary number for such a small village. The service was brought to a close, and Comrade Gilmore invited everyone to attend church service at the Baptist Church, and return to the Legion Hall

Kinmount Klippings

Well here goes nothing! I have a special request from our Kinmount hockey team. Some players are short of equipment, probably the same "junk" you have in your back room. Please make a list with size and price and let us know what you have. It would be appreciated.

Get well wishes to Mary Graham in Minden Hospital and Herb Hancock in Toronto Western Hospital.

There is a Brownie meeting every Wednesday Night at 4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the Kinmount School. All girls welcome. If you have a uniform sitting at home please let them know.

The euchre game held every Wednesday night at Galway Firehall at 7:30 p.m. had a good turnout. Most lone hands - Frank Franzen. Men's high - Ken Yonge. Ladies high - Brenda Long Hurst. Low - Ida Yonge.

The card game at St. Patrick's Hall Kinmount on Tuesday had a few winners also Ed Williams of Davis Lake and Irene McNamara of Kinmount. A good night was enjoyed by all.

The card games are open to all, so come and meet your neighbours.

See you next week.

We will pass on this thought to the parents of the young people who died so suddenly on the weekend. They are not lost, our well-beloved, Nor have they travelled far—Just stepped inside God's loveliest room, And left the door ajar.

Anon

Winners of the Wintario toques this week were from Brown Owl Marj MacMinn, from Mike's Rhoda McKelvey, from Stedmans Jean McKelvey, from Mae's Carl Harrison and from Drug Store Greg Roe.

Linda and Lyle McKnight are away enjoying a visit with daughter Luanne McKnight in California.

We missed mentioning that there is a new arrival - a baby girl for Jane and Darryl Graham and grandchild of Shirley Bunker and great grandchild of Kathryn Daniel.

Weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson were Shirley and Peter Davidson of Toronto and Paul Davidson of Thornbury.

Another lucky lady at Rotary Bingo last week as Yvonne Beaucage won the snowball of $115 in 22 numbers called. Congrats to her.

Weekend guest with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Phil Robinson was Bradley Robinson of Weston.

Mom takes a pile of things to sale Of rummage, and she doesn't fail To bring back home another load Another attic has bestowed.

At the weekly Mini Card Party at the Parish Hall last Thursday afternoon winners were for cribbage Gladys Wruth and Luther Wilson; for euchre lone hands Bev Johnson and others Shirley Elcome (on a cut) and Claire Brooks.

Good wishes are sent to these people who are in hospital or who have now come home, Florence Walker, Lydia Coulter, Barbara Todd, Minnie Dawson, Clara Francis and Joe Dollo Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Hewitt were visiting folks at Whitby and Toronto over the weekend.

Scott Russell of C.A.F. has cut 2 records at Nashville and these may soon be on sale in our village.

Rena McIntyre of Peterborough has been visiting with Mrs. Maud Coulter these past few days.

There was a grand draw at Dixie Lee on the weekend for chicken dinners and winner of this was C. Dennis of Toronto.

Miss Margaret Frise spent the weekend at Richmond Hill.

Monday guests from Bracebridge with Mrs. Ben Harrison and the Bill Moores were Helen and Alan Brydson.

Don Davidson of Minden Pines has just returned home after a motor trip to Florida.

Doris and Bill Negus of Lindsay paid a surprise visit on Mr. and Mrs. Phil Robinson last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Walker left last week for a Florida vacation.

Sincere sympathy goes to the families of these people who died since last week: Stewart Dawson, Ralph Lightfoot, Barbara Faulkner and Donald Faulkner, Penny Pripp, Wendy Schell, Rodney Gorveatt and Jeffrey Hutchings.

Now who would imagine to see here there So poised and calm in the president's chair That an hour ago she was ironing a shirt;

Stopping a fight before someone was hurt; Heating the stew and going to the door; Wiping the mud off the bathroom floor; Listening to Tom who has trouble reading; While bandaging Bill who is suddenly bleeding; Greeting her husband-half an hour late—Frantically setting the living room straight. No wonder she looks so contented there. At last she has time to sit in a chair.

The following week November 28th will be the Luncheon at the St. Paul's Anglican Parish Hall - watch for time on this. Then Library Cultural Meeting is at the Minden Library 8:00 on November 24. Also on the 22nd is the Birthday Tea at her home for Mrs. Harry Welch, this from 2-4. Busy time as people are thinking of their Christmas gifts. Thrift Shop at St. Paul's Anglican Parish Hall will be open this Saturday November 22 from 2 - 4:30 p.m.

This has been a sad week, to think these accidents happen on dry pavement. Do be careful as snow will make them more dangerous. Cheerio until next time.

Lines from Lutterworth

by Jean Lacey

Hi! Weather wise it has been nice. Took a nice walk through the woods and enjoyed it immensely.

So glad to hear Heather Bowron is home from hospital, where she spent a few days fighting a virus infection.

Mr. Walter Noice's sister has arrived from the States to stay with him.

Mrs. Bedlington is home from hospital and Mrs. Lewis is spending some time with her.

Congratulations to the men on the slate, being returned to office. Keep up the good work gentlemen. Also congratulations to Mrs. Cheryl Murdock for her acclamation to School Board for Lutterworth Township.

So sorry to hear Mrs. Angus Coulter was rushed to hospital after suffering a stroke. We hear she is holding her own so are praying she'll recover soon.

Bob and Barb White were down from the Sudbury area, visiting relatives in the area.

Mr. Nuetzel and his son were up to their cottage over the weekend.

Was pleased to hear that Mrs. Mary Oster is getting around quite well without her walker now.

Our thoughts, prayers and condolences are with the families that were struck with tragedy on the weekend. May God be with them in their sorrow.

I wish to thank all friends, neighbours and relatives for all their kind thoughts and wishes, while I was away having a few tests taken. May God love you all as I do.

Hint of the Week

Final Rinse - For blondes, rinse hair with water containing a few tablespoons of lemon juice. For brunettes and redheads, rinse with water containing several tablespoons of apple cider vinegar. Both will remove soapy film and give the hair a beautiful shine. Brunettes and redheads can also rinse their hair with coffee. Do not rinse it out. You will be amazed at how rich and shiny your hair will appear.

Why is a policeman the strongest man in the world? Because he can stop a 10-ton truck with one hand.

What is the best way to make trousers last?

What are the little white things in your head that bite?

Teeth

What grows bigger the more you take from it?

A hole

What gets wetter the more it dries?

Take it easy. Bye for now. God bless till next time.

I would like to express my appreciation to the voters of Anson, Hindon and Minden for their support at the polls. I look forward to serving you during the next two years.

"If you can't read your business's financial statement then it's of no use to you"

LEARN HOW

The Federal Business Development Bank (in co-operation with the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce) is presenting a one day crash course on "How To Read Financial Statements & Plan For A Possible Expansion"

During our seminar, we first review the basic financial statements on which business decisions should be based. We then discuss the operating forecast, a most useful tool, and show how it can often take the guesswork out of good financial planning. These principles are then put to the test by reviewing a practical, real-life Case Study in which all registrants become the "decision makers!" If the future of your business is important to you — don't miss this opportunity!

DATE: Dec. 2, 1980
TIME: 9 - 4 p.m. (Registration 8:30)
PLACE: PineStone Inn
COST: $35 (Includes lunch & texts)
($25 for each additional person from your business)

Call Alex McLeod COLLECT at (705) 748-3241 for additional information & pre-registration.
